Library

In Japan, there is a library in school. Many students go to the library to read, search, and write for their homework. Some students go to the library to prepare for the exam.