

Education for Everyone

It is often said that education around the world is unequal. For example, there are many children that can't go to the school. To make it better, studying about their life situation is important. Now, experts analyze such situations, and in this way they provide correct education system to the community. Education equality is one of the most important issues for many countries.

Your story should begin with this sentence: One day, Kazuya and Aya were talking about their homework for the art class.

