

Global Communication

These days, English is becoming more important for students in Japan. One reason is that more companies want global workers who can communicate with people from different countries. To meet this need, some schools offer international exchange programs. Students join such programs, and by doing so they can learn foreign cultures and improve their English skills for the future.

Your story should begin with this sentence: One day, Mr. and Mrs. Yamagami were talking to his son, Hiroto.
